

Ox Eye Daisy

Leucanthemum vulgare

Careful! They look a lot like the common daisy you can buy as a bouquet

Flat, yellow centers with white petals

Dark green leaves with "teeth"

Can grow up to
3 feet tall

Highly invasive! Carries crop diseases and displaces native plants. Each flower can have up to 200 seeds and also spreads by rhizomes. Rhizomes are roots that can make new plants even from little pieces.